Subject: Declaration of compliance with the EU Directive EU 2002/95/EC (RoHS), 2005/32/CE, 2005/717/CE, 2006/691/CE, 2006/692/CE, 2008/35/EC, 2008/385/CE, 2010/571/EU, 2011/534/EU, 2011/65/EU (RoHS2)

ALMECO S.p.A. declares that all the items supplied to its customers are compliant with the RoHS Directive. In particular we refer to the substances regulated under the European Union's RoHS (Restriction of Hazardous Substances) Directive, 2002/95/CE (RoHS and subsequent updates), up to December 19th 2011.

We remember you that the European Union's RoHS Directive applies to electrical and electronic equipments that are dependent on electric or electromagnetic fields in order to work properly and does not cover components or sub-assemblies; so ALMECO S.p.A. is not directly involved in it. Anyway, since the equipment producers will have to take their own steps to ensure that all parts and materials used in their products do not contain restricted substances, we hold important this Declaration of compliance.

For further requests, we are at your disposal. Best regards,

Group Managing Director
